Strengthening government institutional capacity on

Local Governance

A Shiraka professional development course

Netherlands Enterprise Agency

The Hague Academy for local governance

The Netherlands invites senior civil servants from the MENA region to apply for a professional development course on Local Governance.

Eligible countries for this course are: Algeria, Bahrain, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Mauritania, Morocco, Oman, Palestinian Territories, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Tunisia, United Arab Emirates, Yemen.

The objective of the course is for civil servants working in the field of local governance to share their knowledge and skills enabling them to lead and inspire the modernization of local governance in their home countries. The course also aims to strengthen participants' ties with the Netherlands and the Dutch government; especially between Dutch civil servants and their counterparts in the target countries.

Goals of the Local Governance professional development course

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands is organizing the professional development course with the following aims:

- Increasing awareness of and knowledge exchange between policy and decision-makers at national and sub-national government level working on issues related to decentralization and local governance;
- Participants will have sufficient knowledge of decentralization processes, to implement and coordinate these in their countries;
- Participants will be aware of the importance of good local governance and will have insight in the elements that contribute to effective inter-administrative relations;
- Participants will be able to assess the level of decentralization in their country and will have made an action plan to further support good governance on a local level.

Additionally, the course provides participants with the opportunity to develop a valuable network with other civil servants in the region and in the Netherlands.

Course outline and content

The training programme will have a practical and interactive character. This is in line with the objective to share knowledge and strengthen the cooperation between the civil servants of the participating countries.

The programme will stimulate much participant interaction and is built around three balanced, mutually supportive and integrated components, namely:

- Main concepts and elements of decentralisation processes
- Practical skills such as negotiation skills
- Study visits to Dutch governmental bodies

Social programmes such as the welcome dinner, the networking reception and other social activities will facilitate network development between the participants from the various countries as well as between the participants and their Dutch counterparts.

Upon completion of the training, participants will:

- Have a thorough understanding of the basic concepts of decentralization and multilevel governance;
- Have insight into the way decentralization and local governments function in The Netherlands;
- Be able to use the acquired knowledge and best practices as a source of inspiration for dealing with challenges related to decentralization policies in their own countries;
- Be trained in the practical application of process management, change management and various practical skills ;

Dates, location and language

The professional development course will take 2 weeks in total.

Part I: 30 April-8 May 2018
The Hague
The Netherlands

Part II: July 2018
Tunisia

The courses will be in English, with interpretation into Arabic. Participants are obliged to attend both parts in full.

After successfully completing the course, participants will receive a certificate.

Costs and fees

The Dutch government will take care of all relevant costs for participants from countries on the OECD-DAC list. This includes international travel, board and lodging, visa and insurance, and tuition fees for the course.

Participants from countries that are not on the OECD-DAC list will pay for their own international travel costs; flight tickets and visa. Board and lodging, insurance and tuition fees for the course will be covered by the Dutch government.

All applicants are responsible for the organisation and costs of travelling to the airport in their own country. In case of no-shows or cancellations within four weeks before the start of the first part of the training, the organisation has the right to claim all costs incurred from the participants' employer.
